

MORE FACTS AT YOUR FINGERTIPS

There are so many tempting, fascinating and engaging information books available for children that sometimes it's hard to know where to begin. Many children are drawn to these texts which feed their curiosity, allowing them to explore their passions as well as discovering new interests, raising questions and broadening horizons.

This booklists highlights just a few of the fabulous non-fiction books currently on offer which, hopefully, will lead to many others!

Explore Under the Earth
Carly Madden, illustrated by Neil Clark

In this bright, colourful board book, Evie and her pet dog, Juno explore all the layers below the ground. Part of a series designed to spark interest in the world around them, 'Explore under the Earth' is a perfect introduction to the geography of the Earth.

Quarto Publishing
ISBN: 978-0711279018

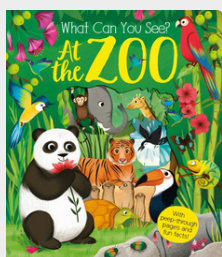

Big Outdoors for Little Explorers: Countryside
Anne-Kathrin Behl

Published in collaboration with the National Trust, 'Countryside' is part of a series sure to inspire curiosity in animals and nature. This board book with sliders offers plenty to explore and enjoy.

Nosy Crow and The National Trust
ISBN: 978-1839941788

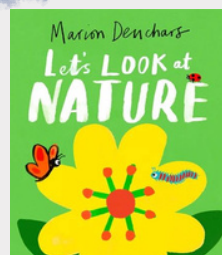

What Can You See? At the Zoo
Kate Ware, illustrated by Maria Perera

'At the Zoo' is part of an early non-fiction series, full of fun facts, things to spot and peep-through pages. The bold illustrations are sure to capture attention and engage interest.

Little Tiger
ISBN: 978-1912756674

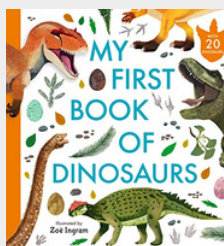

Let's Look at Nature
Marion Deuchars

A perfect introduction to the wonders of nature, 'Let's Look at Nature' leads little ones on an adventure through the natural world. Ideal for sharing before and after walks in the great outdoors!

Laurence King
ISBN: 978-1510230163

My First Book of Dinosaurs
illustrated by Zoe Ingram

Featuring twenty of the most raw-some dinosaurs, this is the perfect introduction to prehistoric creatures for young children.

Walker Books
ISBN: 978-1529509977

Really Wild Families: Little Whale
Anna Brett, illustrated by Carmen Saldana

Following a day in the life of Little Whale, this lovely picture book is full of facts about these fascinating creatures. Activity pages and a quiz at the end of the book extends the fun!

Words and Picture
ISBN: 978-0711283541

Handbook of Forgotten Skills
Natalie Crowley and Elaine Batiste, illustrated by Chris Duriez

Containing more than thirty skills to learn and enjoy, this book offers a structured approach to learning something new, supported by clear illustrations and offering the history behind each skill..

Magic Cat
ISBN: 978-1913520847

Human 2.0: A Celebration of Human Bionics
Patrick Kane, Illustrated by Samuel Rodriguez

Human 2.0 is a celebration of the pioneering technological breakthroughs which have been achieved so far and offers a look at what might be achieved in the future.

Big Picture Press
ISBN: 978-1800781689

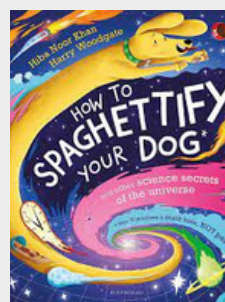

Please Don't Bite Me: Insects that Buzz, Bite and Sting
Nazzy Pakpour, illustrated by Owen Davey

Some of the most irritating buzzing, biting and stinging insects are celebrated in this fascinating book which shows that perhaps they are not quite so bad after all!

Flying Eye Books
ISBN: 978-1838740900

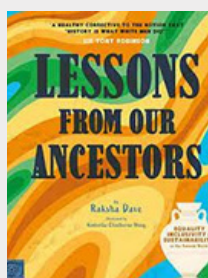

How to Spaghetlify Your Dog and other science secrets of the universe
Hiba Noor Khan, illustrated by Harry Woodgate

With easy-to-follow experiments and plenty of humour, this eye-catching book is packed full of science facts and perfect for budding physicists!

Bloomsbury
ISBN: 978-1526627810

Lessons from our Ancestors
Raksha Dave, illustrated by Kimberlie Clinthorne-Wong

Told through 50 objects, this intriguing book takes a fresh look at the past, exploring forgotten histories. Sure to inspire discussion and engage readers!

Magic Cat Publishing
ISBN: 978-1913520946

The Federation of Children's Book Groups

The Federation strives to bring children and books together for enjoyment and fun.

For more information: info@fcbg.org.uk www.fcbg.org.uk

Fiction, fiction, fiction. All we ever hear about is fiction. When everybody knows, non-fiction has the best stories. You couldn't make it up!

-Martin Brown, author and illustrator

Welcome to our Table

Laura Mucha and Ed Smith. illustrated by Harriet Lynas

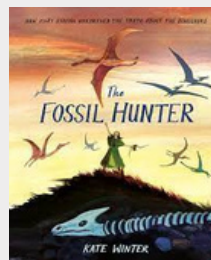

'Welcome to our Table' offers a wonderful introduction to many of the different dishes and delicacies found around the world, the ways they are cooked and eaten and the words used to name them!

Nosy Crow

ISBN: 978-1839945045

The Fossil Hunter

Kate Winter

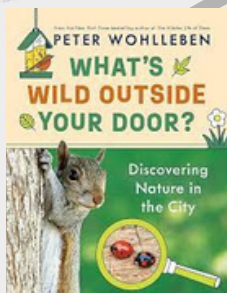

Beautifully illustrated, 'The Fossil Hunter' explores the life of Mary Anning and the incredible contribution she made to modern palaeontology.

Penguin

ISBN: 978-0241469880

What's Wild Outside Your Door?

Peter Wohlleben, translated by Jane Billingham

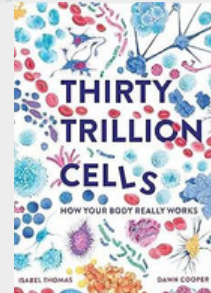

Encouraging the reader to look for nature on their doorstep and engage with, and explore, the world around them by offering activities to try, 'What's Wild Outside Your Door?' is an engaging and enjoyable read.

Greystone

ISBN: 978-1771648950

Thirty Trillion Cells

Isabel Thomas, illustrated by Dawn Cooper

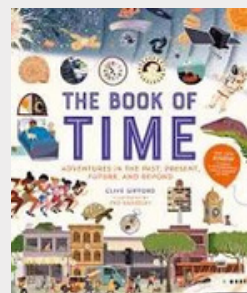

This skilfully illustrated book bursts with information about all the cells in your body and how they work together to make humans what they are.

Welbeck

ISBN: 978-1803380131

The Book of Time

Clive Gifford, illustrated by Teo Georgiev

What is time? This fascinating book holds the answers to many questions, using the concept of time to explore a wide range of subjects.

Words and Pictures

ISBN: 978-0711279551

Time Travel Sleepover: Ancient Egypt

Timothy Knapman, illustrated by Matt Robertson

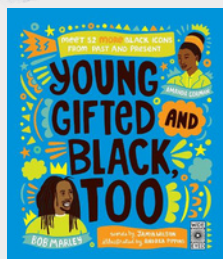

Time-travellers Jake and Lula and their cat, Clawdia, set off on an adventure to ancient Egypt. Readers can explore the life of an everyday Egyptian child with the time travellers.

Happy Yak

ISBN: 978-0711281394

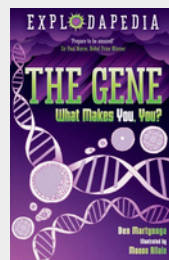

Young, Gifted and Black Too
Jamia Wilson, illustrated by Andrea Pippins

Meet 52 more Black icons from the past and present in this fascinating follow-up to 'Young, Gifted and Black' (ISBN: 978-1786030887).
Inspiration on every page!

Wide-Eyed
ISBN: 978-0711277007

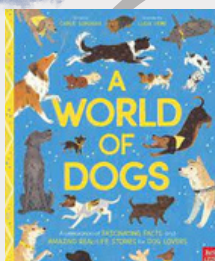

Explodapedia: The Gene
Ben Martynoga, illustrated by Moose Allain

Explaining how genes carry all the instructions needed to make you completely unique, 'The Gene' is a fascinating read. Other Explodapedia titles include 'The Cell' (ISBN: 978-1788451918) and 'Evolution' (ISBN: 978-1788452502).

David Fickling Books
ISBN: 978-1788452458

A World of Dogs
Carlie Sorosiak, illustrated by Luisa Uribe

Through incredible real-life tales and absorbing facts, 'A World of Dogs' shows how our canine companions have enriched our lives through history to the present day. Perfect for any dog-lover!

Nosy Crow
ISBN: 978-1839948497

Great Minds: 2500 Years of Thinkers and Philosophy
Dr Joan Dritsas and Dr Joan Lennon, illustrated by Andre Ducci

Discover the work and ideas of nineteen brilliant thinkers from the last 2500 years and how they have shaped our understanding of the world around us and each other.

Templar Publishing
ISBN: 978-1800783539

A Whole World of Art
Sarah Phillips, illustrated by Dion MBD

Take a time-travelling tour which offers a global view of art through this absorbing look at 25 significant destinations.

Wide Eyed
ISBN: 978-0711265363

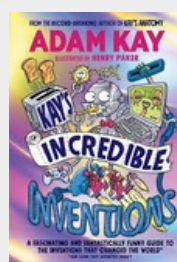

Disgustingly Delicious
Soledad Romero Marino, illustrated by Montse Galbany

Introducing readers to the incredible diversity of foods around the world, 'Disgustingly Delicious' is full of surprising stories and historical facts about world cuisine.

Orange Mosquito
ISBN: 978-1914519680

Kay's Incredible Inventions
Adam Kay, illustrated by Henry Paker

Covering a wide range of ideas including those for the home, in travel and technology, 'Kay's Incredible Inventions' takes a humorous look at an amazing inventions, some of which have changed the world and some of which are best forgotten!

Puffin
ISBN: 978-0241540787

The Federation of Children's Book Groups

The Federation strives to bring children and books together for enjoyment and fun.

For more information: info@fcbg.org.uk
www.fcbg.org.uk